

AMBLESIDE CONFERENCE.

DATE: April 7th, Monday, and the following week.

COMMITTEE. Will every student kindly send a post card giving a vote for a committee member, and an intimation of whether she is at all likely to be present, to the Conference Secretary before January 30th. The following names have been suggested, but any others will be accepted:

Miss W. Kitching.	Miss Nesbitt.
Miss Goode.	Miss Bernau.
Miss E. Wilkinson.	Miss Parish.
Miss S. Hertzell.	Miss Allen.
Miss Brookes.	Miss Moroney.

CONFERENCE SECRETARY. Miss E. H. Laurence has kindly consented to act as Conference Secretary, and all correspondence connected with it should be addressed to her at Clapham (see addresses).

SUBJECTS FOR DISCUSSION. Further subjects suggested are, The Need of a Transition Class between Classes II. and III.

STUDENTS' MEETINGS.

A meeting of students was held at 13, Chelworth Street, on November 13th, by kind invitation of Miss Faunce and Miss Evans. Thirteen students were present, and were much impressed by the delightful arrangements of their hostesses. School and Conferences impressions were given and received.

NOTICES.

The next issue of "L'Umile Pianta" will be before the Students' Conference at Easter. All communications should therefore reach the Editor not a day later than March 1st, so that the number containing full programme and arrangements may be in the hands of all subscribers by April.

Please address all communications to the Editor to

Mayfield,

Maidstone,

until further notice, and do not send them to Reigate.

BIRTH.

IRWIN, née Noble.—August 18th, at Howard Terrace, Dungannon, Tyrone, the wife of W. T. Irwin, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Oct. 9th, Daisy Hughes Jones to Captain H. M. Caddell.

COLTMAN—MAGILL.—On Saturday, Nov. 17th, at Knockane Church, Beaufort, Henry Thomas Lister Coltman, of Burbush, Burley, Hampshire, to Emily Alice, third daughter of the late Captain James Magill and Mrs. Magill, of Churchtown House, Beaufort, Kerry.

DEATH.

Sep., 1906, at Clewer, Sister Violet Page, from cancer.

I should like to remind students that their subscriptions again fall due in December for 1907. I hope that a special effort will be made this year to pay them as soon as possible, otherwise other things come along and they are quite forgotten. A great deal of time and unnecessary expense is expended on trying to collect belated subscriptions, and there are still twelve students who have not paid those for 1906. In future I may not be able to send the Magazine to anyone whose subscription is more than four months overdue; and I may have to publish the names of delinquents in the "Plant." I hope this will have the desired effect.

LILIAN GRAY,
Treasurer.
